

MULTICULTURAL SENSITIVITY TRAINING ON FAMILY VIOLENCE

The Fairfax County Human Services Multicultural Domestic Violence Project will host a workshop on addressing culture perspectives on domestic violence in the Hispanic, and Korean, Muslim and Vietnamese communities. We invite all local service providers, community based organizations, faith and community members to attend this education and advocacy initiative.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

Please reserve the 15 th of August 2003 to attend this one day training.

For more information and to register:

Please contact:            Jessica Van Fossen    703-671-5666 Ext 122
                                 KimViet Ngo            703-538-2190

Deadline for Reservations: August 1, 2003

The Fairfax County Human Services Multicultural Domestic Violence Project is focused on developing a community-based approach to coordinate and integrate services for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence victim for families in Fairfax County. To find out how you or your organization can participate in this community effort or to learn more about the Fairfax County Human Services Multicultural Domestic Violence Project, contact the Department of Systems Management for Human Services, Region II at 703-533-5701

MULTICULTURAL SENSITIVITY TRAINING ON FAMILY VIOLENCE

Registration deadline: August 1, 2003

E-Mail: _____

What sort of barriers have you perceived in working with community?